Marketing Release

This form takes effect only when it is signed and dated. Printing it, filling it in, or bringing it with you does not by itself agree to anything. Nothing on this page is in force until your signature is on it.

Maureen's Massage · Maureen Leonie Reid, LMT · version 0.1.0 · effective 2026-09-09

Entirely optional. You do not need to sign this to book or be seen.

If this form is more than a few months old, check the website for a current copy — the version and date above tell you which one you have.

Who this release is with

This release is between you and Maureen's Massage (Maureen Leonie Reid, LMT MA78217). It is a separate document from the intake and consent form you sign before a session. Signing your intake form does not sign this one, and declining to sign this one does not affect your intake or your appointment in any way.

What you are agreeing to Florida law says my use of your information for marketing or to sell you goods or services is prohibited unless you give a specific written release permitting it. This is that release, and it only covers what you check and sign below. Nothing in your care, your records, or your treatment depends on you signing this or on what you choose to allow.

What you can allow, one at a time

Each box below is its own choice. Checking one does not check the others, and you may check any combination, including none.

[] You may use my name and what I say about my experience as a client testimonial on the website, in print, or on social media. (This box does not cover photographs or video — that is a separate release, D9.)

[] You may send me occasional post-visit messages, including requests to leave a review. These still come with a working opt-out every time, and I can withdraw this box alone without affecting any other box.

[] You may include my information in marketing campaigns sent through the booking platform's marketing tools (email or text campaigns about promotions, offers, or news).

[] You may include my information in a list uploaded to, or shared with, an advertising platform or tracking pixel for marketing purposes.

This is never required

Declining every box above, or leaving this whole form unsigned, changes nothing about your care, your booking, your price, or how I treat you. You are never asked to sign this in exchange for a discount, a gift, or any other consideration, and no session is ever conditioned on it.

Changing your mind

You can withdraw any box you checked at any time, for any reason, by telling me in writing at hello@maureensmassage.com or 3589 E Gulf to Lake Hwy, Inverness, FL 34453. Withdrawal stops new use going forward — it does not undo a testimonial or post that was already published before you withdrew, but I will take down anything you ask me to take down within a reasonable time of your request.

What signing this does not do

Checking the review-request box above is one layer of consent. It supplements, and does not replace, the sender-identity and opt-out disclosures that still appear on any commercial email or text you receive — those disclosures are required regardless of what you check here.

This release is dated and versioned. If I ever change what the checkboxes above cover, a change applies only to a new signature going forward, never retroactively to a box you already checked under an earlier version.
